PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Elizabeth Richards Campfire rug is an exclusively designed classroom rug created especially for Australian schools. It will inspire a sense of community in your classroom with its beautiful Aussie campfire theme.

Created exclusively for Elizabeth Richards, the Campfire Rug was designed to create a true sense of community in your classroom. It's beautiful campfire theme with a series of semi-circles radiating from the 'fire' allows children to feel a sense of belonging while they share stories around the imaginary 'campfire'.

The Elizabeth Richards Campfire classroom rug will become a central place in your classroom for sharing stories, gathering, and reflecting. The semi-circular campfire design includes 25 smaller circular seating spots, so every child has a place to sit and a place to join in.

A must-have for every classroom from early childhood settings through to High School break-out rooms and libraries. It is not only a unique piece of art but a functional classroom mat that can be used for setting up learning spaces and defining zones. Your classroom library will have its own designated reading zone or you can use the Campfire classroom rug to create a designated space for sharing stories.

The Elizabeth Richards Campfire Rug is made from high a quality cut-pile polyester blend with a non-slip latex backing and will withstand heavy foot traffic. Each rug is soil resistant and easily wiped down or vacuumed to maintain the vibrant colour.

The Elizabeth Richards Campfire Rug was designed to immerse children in community through storytelling and gathering. It's also a great opportunity to allow children to choose flexible seating like the Elizabeth Richards Chill-Out Chairs to really settle in with a good book.
